THE TERROIR

The 200 hectares of Montagny Premier Cru vineyards are located at the southern tip of the Côte Chalonnaise and it is here that we find “Les Coères” with its 34 hectares, making it the largest Premier Cru plot. The vines are planted on a plateau and on slopes that are south-east and north facing. The soils are shallow and clay rich, especially in blue marls, but are not too stony. We do however find limestone with a high content of small fossilised molluscs (Gryphaea).

DID YOU KNOW?

Following the Côte de Beaune vineyards south we find the Côte Chalonnaise with Montagny, the most southerly village appellation of the region, at the centre of a vast amphitheatre of vines that opens to the east. The appellation includes 49 Premier Cru classified vineyard plots and it covers 4 communes: Buxy, Montagny-lès-Buxy, Jully-lès-Buxy and Saint-Vallerin. Here, as in the Côte de Nuits or in Chassagne-Montrachet, wine-growing and stone quarrying share the landscape. The wines of Montagny, produced solely from Chardonnay grapes, were the preferred choice of the Monks of Cluny.
